National Museum of the American Indian

MEET MINDY

A Native Girl from the Southwest

By Susan Secakuku (Hopi)
Photographs by John Harrington (Siletz)

Learn about the Hopi and Tewa peoples of the Southwest through the real life of 14-year-old Mindy Secakuku. Journey with Mindy through her coming-of-age ceremony, her daily life at high school, and her participation in the Yah-ne-wah Dance. Discover the Hopi traditions of growing corn, weaving baskets, and carving katsina dolls. Illustrated with vibrant color photographs, this book shows how a Hopi girl celebrates her Native identity while living in contemporary society.

"Meet Mindy unselfconsciously shows the seamless way most American Indians smoothly step between traditional Indian and current mainstream lives. The book is vibrant, refreshing, inviting. It feels very, very today. Colorful, intimate, authentic, and personable, it is a peek into the lives of a few of the 10,000 Hopi in the United States."
